SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

----- X
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

-against-

DAVID WILLIAMS,

Defendant.
----- X

No. 20 Cr. 49 (JFK)

ORDER

JOHN F. KEENAN, United States District Judge:

The Court will hear Defendant's request for an order granting his temporary release or his release on bail on August 11, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. The Court, having determined that video teleconferencing is not reasonably available, FURTHER ORDERS that the hearing will be by telephone using the following conference line and dial-in:

AT&T Conference Line: 1-888-363-4749
Access Code: 788 3927 #

Members of the press and public may call the same number, but they will not be permitted to speak during the hearing.

During the teleconference, counsel should adhere to the following rules and guidelines:

1. Each party should designate a single lawyer to speak on its behalf (including when noting the appearances of other counsel on the telephone).
2. Counsel should use a landline whenever possible, should use a headset instead of a speakerphone, and must mute themselves whenever they are not speaking to eliminate background noise. In addition, counsel should not use voice-activated systems that do not allow the user to know when someone else is trying to speak at the same time.

3. To facilitate an orderly teleconference and the creation of an accurate transcript, counsel are required to identify themselves every time they speak. Counsel should spell any proper names for the court reporter. Counsel should also take special care not to interrupt or speak over one another.
4. If there is a beep or chime indicating that a new caller has joined while counsel is speaking, counsel should pause to allow the Court to ascertain the identity of the new participant and confirm that the court reporter has not been dropped from the call.

Defense counsel shall discuss the attached Waiver of Right to be Present at Criminal Proceeding with Defendant prior to the proceeding. If Defendant consents, and is able to sign the form (either personally or, in accordance with Standing Order 20-MC-174 of March 27, 2020, by defense counsel), defense counsel shall file the executed form at least 24 hours prior to the proceeding. In the event Defendant consents, but counsel is unable to obtain or affix Defendant's signature on the form, the Court will conduct an inquiry at the outset of the proceeding to determine whether it is appropriate for the Court to add Defendant's signature to the form.

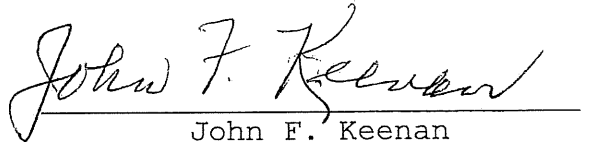

To the extent that there are any documents relevant to the proceeding, counsel should submit them to the Court (by email or on ECF, as appropriate) at least 24 hours prior to the proceeding. To the extent any documents require Defendant's signature, defense counsel should endeavor to get them signed in advance of the proceeding as set forth above; if defense counsel is unable to do so, the Court will conduct an inquiry during the proceeding to determine whether it is appropriate for the Court to add Defendant's signature.

Finally, all of those accessing the conference line—whether in listen-only mode or otherwise—are reminded that recording or rebroadcasting of the proceeding is prohibited by law.

SO ORDERED.
